Dear Homeowner,

Congratulations for taking the first step and contacting us about your mortgage. We understand how hard that can be and promise to work as hard as you do to find a resolution to your situation.

If you return the intake package via mail please do not send your originals (copies only). To help you find your best options, ALL of this information is needed. We only ask for the information that is necessary. Please know that we keep all your information confidential.

You will find there is an emphasis on being truthful. We can't help with a resolution unless we have a complete accurate picture of your situation. A plan based only on part of your information is certain to fail. In addition we do collect information from your credit report and the servicer to compare with your forms to make sure that all important information is included in our assessment and your decision making.

Please Note: This Intake Package along with all needed information on the checklist must be received completed, copied and signed prior to an appointment being made with the counselor.

Your appointment with a housing counselor will last an hour. Please arrive on time. Many other families are in the same position as you and the demand for our service is high. We often have appointments back to back. If you arrive late, we will have to reschedule your appointment.

You can reach our office at 216-381-6100 ext. 14 (Denise Black).

Faxes may be sent to 216-381-6683.

Emails may be sent to: Dblack@hrrc-ch.org (Denise).

You have taken the first step to resolving your situation. Home Repair Resource Center looks forward to working with you!

Sincerely,

The Foreclosure Staff

NFMC Client Privacy Policy

Home Repair Resource Center and its agents are committed to assuring the privacy of individuals and/or families who have contacted us for assistance. We realize that the concerns you bring to us are highly personal in nature. We assure you that all information shared both orally and in writing will be managed within legal and ethical considerations. Your “nonpublic personal information,” such as your total debt information, income, living expenses and personal information concerning your financial circumstances, will be provided to creditors, program monitors, and others only with your authorization and signature on the Certification and Authorization Agreement. We may also use anonymous aggregated case file information for the purpose of evaluating our services, gathering valuable research information and designing future programs.

Types of information that we gather about you

- Information we receive from you orally, on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, assets, and income;
- Information about your transactions with us, your creditors, or others, such as your account balance, payment history, parties to transactions and credit card usage; and
- Information we receive from a credit reporting agency, such as your credit history.

You may opt-out of certain disclosures

1. You have the opportunity to “opt-out” of disclosures of your nonpublic personal information to third parties (such as your creditors), that is, direct us not to make those disclosures.
2. If you choose to “opt-out”, we will not be able to answer questions from your creditors. If at any time, you wish to change your decision with regard to your “opt-out”, you may call us at (phone number) and do so.

Release of your information to third parties

1. So long as you have not opted-out, we may disclose some or all of the information that we collect, as described above, to your creditors or third parties where we have determined that it would be helpful to you, would aid us in counseling you, or is a requirement of grant awards that make our services possible.
2. We may also disclose any nonpublic personal information about you or former customers to anyone as permitted by law (e.g., if we are compelled by legal process).
3. Within the organization, we restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.
